Accord for a timetable for the future of the peace process

The National Government and the spokesmen for the FARC-EP assembled on January 19 and 20, 2002 at the inspection of the Pozos, municipality of San Vicente del Caguán, in the presence of the International Facilitating Commission, the UN and the Catholic Church, and CONSIDERING:

1. That the Parts reiterate that a negotiated political solution is the path through which the armed conflict in Colombia will be resolved, for which they will put forth every effort to continue to work in an atmosphere of mutual trust, with the intention of reaching accords, that allow for the advancing of the peace process.
2. That the Common Agenda toward the Change for the New Colombia is the fundamental document in the process of dialogue and negotiation between the National Government and the FARC.
3. That the Parts in the Accord of San Francisco affirm that the peace process requires a favorable atmosphere without armed confrontation.
4. That it is indispensable to create accords that lead to the lessening of the conflict.
5. That the Parts have recognized that said Accord, in addition to the Document of the Recommendations of the Commission of Notables, trace an adequate route for the immediate development and the extension of the peace process.
6. That in the Accord of San Francisco, the National Government and the FARC-EP agree to immediately undertake the integral study of the document of the recommendations presented by the Commission of Notables.
7. That the Parts consider that it is necessary to develop the political accompaniment in such an Accord, inviting the presidential candidates, the political parties and movements, the National Council for Peace and the different sectors of the civil community that the Parts agree upon, with the purpose of contributing to the process.
8. That the Parts agree to immediately and holistically undertake the development of the document presented by the Commission of Notables on September 17.
9. That we also corroborate the operation and validity of the following documents already signed by the Parts: the Accord of Caquetania subscribed May 2, 1999, the Accord of the Pozos subscribed February 9, 2001 and the Accord of San Francisco de la Sombra subscribed October 5, 2001.
10. Point 10 of the Accord of los Pozos states that: "The FARC-EP do not oppose projects of manual eradication and illicit crop substitution, but reiterate that these must be furthered in common accord with the communities. National Government and FARC-EP coincide in the strategic importance of working for the protection and conservation of the environment."

11. We thank the role played by the facilitating countries and by the UN Special Advisor

The Parts will define, before February 6, 2002, the routes of the most active international participation in the role of accompaniment

We equally thank the accompaniment to the Table by Nuncio Apostólico Benniamino Stella and the Catholic Church of Colombia headed by Monsignor Alberto Giraldo, president of the Colombian Episcopal Conference, and Monsignor Fransisco Múnera, Bishop of San Vicente del Caguán.

12. As mentioned in the Accord of San Fransisco, the FARC-EP pledge to immediately ratify the instructions to all of its members not to carry out "pescas milagrosas" [kidnapping at roadblocks] on the national highways.
